

JAMES CHRISTIANSEN PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Former State Treasurer Seems Very Little Perturbed in District Court.

WILL FIX HEARING
AT AN EARLY DATE

Demurrers in the Citizens Investment Company Cases to Be Argued.

Any doubt as to whether James Christiansen will fight the charges of misappropriating state funds while state treasurer was removed Wednesday when he pleaded not guilty to the charges in Judge Lewis's division of the third district court.

Christiansen was arraigned for pleading on two points, the first charging the embezzlement of $60,000 and the second the misappropriation of $10,- 000, raising the total amount he is charged with embezzling to $70,000.

The information was read to Christiansen and he pleaded not guilty to the counts. Then he sat down and read the morning newspaper.

Christiansen's hearing was not fixed, but it is understood that it will be set at the earliest possible date. This will be arranged between Christiansen's counsel, Samuel A. King, and District Judge Fred C. Lofthouse.

While in court Christiansen was seated between J. Edgar Grant, charged with forgery, and Julius Wardle, charged with destroying the transmission wire of the Telluride Power company at Bingham Canyon, and he took interest in their cases than in his own case or his newspaper.

The Other Cases.
Both Grant and Wardle pleaded not guilty, but the latter asked, and was granted, permission to withdraw and change this plea any time before his trial, which was fixed for Wednesday, September 3. Grant is charged with forging the name of E. H. Smith to a check for $50 on the State Bank of Utah.

When the cases against the Citizens' Investment company and its general manager, president and treasurer, Belle Cannon, charged with allowing the company to be used for immoral purposes, were called, Samuel A. King, their counsel, interposed a motion to dismiss the actions on the ground that the complaints do not properly set out the charges brought against them.

Demurrers on which they were bound over to the district court. The motion is to the investment company also sets out that the complaint does not state whether the concern is a corporation, partnership or association.

In the case of the investment company a demurrer was also introduced asking that the service of summons be set aside on the ground that it was defective. Another demurrer was introduced alleging that the information against the company do not conform to the requirements of the statute under which they are brought, and that the court therefore has no jurisdiction over the defendants or the subject matter of the actions.

The argument on this batch of motions and demurrers was set for Saturday morning, October 2, and if they are granted the defendants will then be required to enter their pleas.

AUGUSTUS HEINZE
PLEADS NOT GUILTY

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—F. Augustus Heinze pleaded not guilty in the criminal branch of the United States court today to the indictments returned against him by the grand jury.

The indictment, when returned by the federal grand jury, contained sixteen counts, but Judge Hough sustained a demurrer to all but the last one. This involves the alleged loan of $50,000 made by Mr. Heinze to himself on October 14, 1907.

No date was set for trial, and Heinze was allowed freedom on bonds given in another indictment.

PINCHOT AND PARDEE'S POLICY IS DENOUNCED

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 22.—The three counties of Washington, which are situated in the Yakima valley, and have been transformed from desert into rich farming land by irrigation, celebrate their day at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition today.

United States Senator Wesley L.
Jones of North Dakota, and United States Judge Cornelius H. Hanford, who is largely interested in eastern Washington irrigation projects, addressed a meeting in the exposition auditorium.

Judge Hanford denounced the conservative policy advocated by Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot and former Governor George C. Pardee of California.

DOCTOR ADVISED OPERATION

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Paw Paw, Mich.—"I suffered terribly from female ills including inflammation and congestion, for several years. My doctor said there was no hope for me but an operation. I began taking Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I can now say I am a well woman."

EMMA DRAFER

Another Operation Avoided.

Chicago, Ill.—"I want women to know what that wonderful medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has done for me. Two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation, and I never thought of seeing a well day again. I had a small tumor and female troubles so that I suffered day and night. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it made me a well woman."—Mrs.
ALEXANDER SPERLING, 11 Langdon St., Chicago, Ill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has proved to be the most successful remedy for curing the worst forms of female ills, including displacements, inflammation, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result has been worth millions to many suffering women.

COOL WEATHER NOW BEING HANDED OUT

Weather Wizard Thiessen Says It Will Be Fair Today: The Meteorological Report.

Weather Wizard Thiessen has apparently reconciled himself to the belief of his predecessor, the good Dr. Hyatt, that the safest plan is to bank on Salt Lake City's luck. A short time ago storms raged around the western slope of Colorado, and there was a howl from Grand Junction on the weather, so Wizard Thiessen brought forth a prediction of "cooler and showers" for this locality on the strength of the threatening "low" area of pressure that seemed to be headed this way.

Wizard Thiessen doled out beautiful autumn weather when he first took the Meridian job here, but he fell down in failing to stand pat. The weather man refuses to state whether he plays poker or not, but it is certain that the cards ran against him during the last three days.

He predicted showers for Tuesday, and Salt Lake City was deluged with rain.
Wednesday, not a bit discouraged, he reported officially, Wednesday night, that there would be a frost. The only frost in this neck of the woods settled around the foreboding rooms on the top of the Boston block.

Of course, Wizard Thiessen is not to blame, because his intentions are good, but he has yet to learn the lesson of Salt Lake City's proverbial luck in the weather line.

Hereafter, when there is a bad "low" in northwestern Colorado, or a threatening "high" starts sweeping down from the northern Canadian line, Wizard Thiessen probably will haul in the sails for protection in case of accident, but will, nevertheless, throw out the old "fair" signal just the same.

The eastern states have reported heavy rains, and frost has been reported at many stations in what is called the plateau region, but Salt Lake City has gone unscathed. The lowest temperature in the plateau region, 28 degrees, was recorded at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning, at Winnemucca, Nev., but Wizard Thiessen evidently made a mistake when he said it was headed Salt Lake City's way.

The temperature will continue to rise, resulting in fair weather Thursday, according to Wizard Thiessen. But he fell down on his hands and knees.

Wednesday's record at the local office of the United States bureau for the twelve-four hours ending at 6 p. m. was as follows:

Temperature at 6 p. m., 57 degrees; maximum temperature, 59 degrees; minimum temperature, 10 degrees; mean temperature, 30 degrees, which is 13 degrees below normal.

Total deficiency of temperature since the first of the month, 54 degrees.

Total deficiency of temperature since January 1, 3 degrees.

Precipitation at 6 p. m., none.

Total precipitation since the first of the month, 1.14 inches, which is .61 of an inch above normal.

Total excess of precipitation since January 1, 2.02 inches.

Relative humidity at 6 p. m., 29 per cent.

CORONER'S JURIES RENDER VERDICTS

However, This Action Throws No More Light on Death of Kaisers.

The cloud of mystery which has enveloped the deaths of Frank S. Kaiser and his wife Minnie, August 29, was not cleared by the verdicts of two coroner's juries which sat in the cases and returned their verdicts Wednesday.

The inquest was held before Justice and Acting Coroner Stanley A. Hanks.
The verdicts were framed alike verbatim, the only changes being in the substitution of the victims' names. Following is the verdict in Kaiser's case:

An inquest having been held at the office of Stanley A. Hanks, justice of the peace, in Salt Lake City precinct, Salt Lake county, upon the body of Frank S.
Kaiser, on the fourth and twenty-second days of September, before S. A. Hanks, justice of the peace, Salt Lake City predict, Salt Lake county, by jurors whose names are hereto subscribed:

The said jurors upon their oaths do say that the said Frank S. Kaiser died on August 29, 1909, as the result of arsenical poison; but how or by what person the said Frank S. Kaiser came to his death and whether death was accidental or felonious, the said jurors are unable to determine. In testimony whereof the said jurors hereunto set their hands, this twenty-second day of September, 1909.

AMOS MORTON,
H. M. ECKIN,
H. P. BURKE.

The verdict in the case of Mrs.
Kaiser was the same, except that it was signed by Daniel W. Gamble, William Fowler and Robert Mathall.

The calling of the juries was merely perfunctory. They listened to testimony from four witnesses, Dr. Robert H. Kroschwitz testified as to his attention of the poison victims. State Chemist Herman Harms gave an exhaustive report regarding his analysis of the Kaisers' stomachs and their contents. Mrs. Hattie James, from whom possessional testimony was anticipated, told flat as a witness, in so far as establishing a working clue as to the identity of the responsible persons was concerned. Mrs. Johanna Elder, who occupied the same house with the Kaisers at 318 Elizabeth street, repeated the story which she has told the authorities since the tragedy.

Railway Men on Tour.
BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 22.—President Earling and directors of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway spent an hour in Butte this morning in the course of their tour of the system. Accompanying them were William Rockefeller and Roswell Miller, John D.
Ryan, who intended to make the trip, was detained by business in New York and is not with the party. Some of the men would discuss public or railway issues while here, except to declare their saw widespread evidences of returning prosperity throughout the west.
